

As of December the Frontiersman has become an online publication only. Being an online news provider enables the 914th Airlift Wing to be more current and up to date on ongoing events. Stories can be posted as they happen. Photographs of events are more readily available for members and family.